Cry myself to sleep.
I couldn't hardly speak
Cause you stood on every word,
That I much heard
I look at you and lied with my lips I thought that I loved you
While my soul was asking why
Why am I surprised
I lost the faith in the truth and in turn I lost you
But I won't cry myself to sleep no stop start before it starts
Gonna find myself a pen and write down my heart
I won't cry myself to sleep, No don't let it go too far
Put it down on paper
The reasons were apart

I can't where it's tough to see
Or even begin to understand a girl like me

I find it hard to say Anything I'm feeling
So I will concentrate
The hurt I live and breathe in so I won't

I won't cry myself to sleep no (stop start before it starts)
Gonna find myself a pen and write down my heart
I won't cry myself to sleep, no (and let it go too far)
Put it down on paper
The reasons were apart

Is there a good reason

I won't cry myself to sleep no (stop start before it starts)
Gonna find myself a pen and write down my heart
I won't cry myself to sleep, no I won't (and let it go too far)
Put it down on paper
