Fell in love with a boy
I fell in love once and I lost completely
He?s in love with the world
And sometimes these feelings can be so misleading
He turns and says ?are you alright??
Oh, I must be fine coz my hearts still beating
Come and kiss me by the riverside
Sarah said its cool she don?t consider it cheating

Owww ow owww ow owww ow owww ow

Read him in the curl
Made a roll full of a flavour and his eyes were peeping Cant keep away from the boy that has two sides on my brain we should have a meeting

Cant think of anything to do
My left brain know that my love is fleeting
Hes jus looking for something new
I?ve said it once before but it bears repeating

Owww ow owww ow owww ow owww ow

Ohhh

Cant think of anything to do
My left brain know that my love is fleeting
Hes jus looking for something new
I?ve said it once before but it bears repeating

Owww ow owww ow owww ow owww ow

Don?t go telling on me

Don?t go telling on me, my eyes wont say it
