Attracted to the madness
Excited if I think I can have it
Call it quirky, cute or sick but I love the way he's got me trapped,
I won't look back
My god

My god, he's gorgeous
Got some lovin' all day
Shut the phone off, close the shades
My god
He's flawless
But his head won't stay on straight
He's just a little crazy

How can I claim to be sane when I've fallen in love with him
I'm just as sick, uhooh

Original is critical
Creative comes laced with Mr. Difficult
My girls watch my tears crawl
Out of my eyes
Streaming mascara falls
Suggesting someone normal
My response to this
Is normal don't exist at all, at all

My god, he's gorgeous
Got some lovin' all day
Shut the phone off, close the shades
My god
He's flawless
But his head won't stay on straight
He's just a little crazy

How can I claim to be sane when I've fallen in love with
him
I'm just as sick, uhooh

Uh, uh, uuh

My god
He's flawless
Ooh ooh
My god
He's gorgeous

My god, he's gorgeous
Got some lovin' all day
Shut the phone off, close the shades
(Shut the phone off, baby, yeah, yeah)
My god
He's flawless
(He's flawless)
(Just a little crazy)

How can I claim to be sane when I've fallen in love with
(Just a little crazy, uh)
(I love my baby, ooh)
I'm just as sick
Uhuuh

My god, he's gorgeous
My god
He's flawless

How can I claim to be sane when I've fallen in love with
him
I'm just as sick
Uhuuh
