You can spend every day of your life
Looking for something that's so hard to find
We all make mistakes sometimes
You all make us stronger, keep the love alive
When you're lonely and your heart's filled with doubt
That's when you need to know

I'll take all of you, my arms are open wide
I'll hold you closer till the day I die
And I promise you, I'll be standing by your side
No matter what this life puts us through
I will take all of you

I should've known you're beautiful
No one can see it deep within your soul
You don't have to show me how
'Cause loving you comes easy
I thank God for what I've found
So when you find the strength inside to let go
Baby, that's when you know

I'll take all of you, my arms are open wide
I'll hold you closer till the day I die
And I promise you, I'll be standing by your side
No matter what this life puts us through
I will take all of you

I'll take the good time with the bad
I'll give you everything I have
'Cause we'll stand together
I'll take a wrong and make it right
Won't let a single day go by
Without you beside me

I'll take all of you, my arms are open wide
Hold you closer till the day I die
And I promise you, I'll be standing by your side
No matter what this life puts us through
I will take all of you
