"What I Love About Home"

I draw back the curtains, hoping for some signs of home
As the light hits the bedroom, I realise again it's just me, on my own
And I long for the sight of the industry sky
And the sound of the silence of my countryside

That's what I love about home

I'm out on the road now, another place with no face passes by
I stare out the window, back to when I said goodbye
And I try
To picture all of the people I know

They're what I love about home

Home is the place where I feel I belong
Down at the end of the road where I'm from Home's where my heart is I won't run away
All my life.
That's where I'll stay

Woah
I'm on my way back now, the sign says just one mile to go
I get the same feeling, the way you feel when your dad says hello
Son you know, when you're lonely you're always welcome to stay

And that's what I love about home

Home is the place where I feel I belong
Down at the end of the road where I'm from
Home's where my heart is I won't run away
All my life.
That's where I'll stay

It's where I belong

Girl I missed you, I pictured you there in my mind

And I long for this moment when I see you smile

You're what I love about home
