Facing the great black sky, drowning in my worst nightmare,
hole-filled heart traumatized by the fear of my own existence
by the fear of my own existence

Man no longer needed, millions of years have gone to waste, it's only a matter of days, then we will all be erased

I hear the chants, I hear the moans, my life is all in vain, it's time to sacrifice my soul

Damn my soul, send me to hell, for cursed I am
in the darkness I dwell, damn my soul damn my soul, send me to hell

It's time to end this worthless existence eaten by giant black holes, realize the end has come realize the end has come
nightmare,
by the fear of my own existence

I hear the chants, I hear the moans,
my life is all in vain, it's time to sacrifice my soul

in the darkness I dwell, damn my soul
