every day I see your face every day I die every day I feel your breath every day I'm born again you give me joy, but my thanks are just pain and out of fear I pull myself loose again for you I die
you are everything I need, what I desire, but will I ever understand?

come on!
I die for you
please forgive my faults, maybe one day I will realize what you mean (to me), I hope it won't be too late every time I cry,
I feel your lies
every time I die,
I see your eyes.
