Drum machine joy, drum machine joy
Soon the goodness king will hear your heart
From within the castle to his warm hearth
Granting hope and wisdom to your soul
The evil spell of sadness has been broken

In your heart, there's a world of sadness
I love you with all heart
In your heart with my words I promise
To love you with all heart
And drum machine joy, drum machine joy
Drum machine joy

Soon the goodness king will hear your heart
From the northern kingdom comes a faint sound
Growing stronger here before your heart
The chorus of the king has come to heal your heart

In your heart there's a world of sadness
I love you with all heart
In your heart with my words I promise
To love you with all heart
And drum machine joy
Drum machine joy

I'm here, my love
Give me your fear
And I will hold your head up
Keep your promise to the end

In your heart there's a world of sadness
I love you with all heart
In your heart with my words
I promise to love you with all heart
And drum machine joy
Drum machine joy
