Baby, Baby, Baby I love you
That's why it doesn't make sense to me
Baby, Baby, Baby I adore you
That's all that really matters to me

So go ahead and walk out that door
Just know before you start
You'll be back for more

Someday we will be together
Someday you'll open your heart
Might not know now but the day's gonna come
You'll be running back to my arms

Baby, Baby, Baby I know you
Better than I know myself
Baby, Baby, Baby I know you
Can't be in love with somebody else

There's no turning back with your pride
But you'll be coming back
In a matter of time

Someday we will be together
Someday you'll open your heart
Might not know now but the day's gonna come
You'll be running back to my arms

And I'll be...
Kicking with my boyfriend
Making plans and conversation
Chillin on the weekend
What a perfect combination
Might not know now but the day's gonna come
You'll be running back to my arms

It's gonna be hard for me
But I can't lie
I know that you still care for me
You still love me
And baby that's what keeps me
Strong, strong, strong

Someday we will be together
Someday you'll open your heart
Might not know now but the day's gonna come
You'll be running back to my arms

And I'll be...
Kicking with my boyfriend
Making plans and conversation
Chillin on the weekend
What a perfect combination
Might not know now but the day's gonna come
You'll be running back to my arms

Someday we will be together
Someday you'll open your heart
Might not know now but the day's gonna come
You'll be running back to my arms
