When we first met my heart was set
You were the love I'd never regret
Then with a smile, you left for awhile
I didn't know that your heart was so wild

Your wild heart
Your wild heart
I couldn't tame right from the start
It was just you, me for you
Your wild heart I had to choose

Then you returned, explained how you yearned
And that the flame for me still burned
How would I know, for I loved you so
Your heart's so wild again, wants to go

Your wild heart
Your wild heart
I couldn't tame right from the start
It was just you, me for you
Your wild heart I had to choose

You act so free it seems to me
Wild your heart always will be
But now I'm through
Things that you do
Tell my heart that you will never be true

Your wild heart
Your wild heart
I couldn't tame right from the start
It was just you, me for you
Your wild heart I had to choose

Your wild heart!
