Love life and laughter
Is all I believe
My saviour is pure now
Because my lonely heart would bleed
I never learned how to hold love
And stay strong to me
Now I close my eyes now
And I'm dreaming right where I belong

Here we lie all alone am I dreaming
You heart's smooth my soul it's unbelieving
Now you see the me and I'm feeling I'm feeling
I feel your hands your lips the heat of your body
Whisper you love me and say you love me
Please just love me darlin' never leave me
I'm a Dreamer

Am I a dream
Am I am I a dreamer
