Verse 1:

Oh what a temporary fix
Hardly sufficient
For such a gaping wound
Oh what a temporary lover
Careful not to scratch the surface
Or expose what's killing you

Chorus:

'Cause it's too late to run away
There's so much to lose too much at stake
I'm not through
Not through with you

Verse 2:

Oh what a monumental part
You try to warm your cold, cold heart
With one foot in the grave
Oh what momentary pleasure
That cuts too deep to measure
With both hands on the blade

Chorus:

'Cause it's too late to run away
There's so much to lose too much at stake
I'm not through
Not through with you

Bridge:

I loose not one(not one): repeat 4 times

Chorus:

'Cause it's too late to run away
There's so much to lose too much at stake
I'm not through
Not through with you
