Well, I hope that we get lost
on a day like this, there's no better reason...

Listen to that sunlight talk,
let it all sink in 'cause there's no better feeling...

Not a worry, not a care, no no no...

The world never looked so bright,
you and I could touch every corner of the sky...

Another day, another road...
I hope theres a million more miles to go,
a million miles to go...

Flying by those exit signs,
getting caught up in words that you keep singing...
So go on forget the time,
watch your troubles getting smaller in the mirror...

Not a worry, not a care, no no no...

The world never looked so bright,
you and I could touch every corner of the sky...

Another day another road...
I hope theres a million more miles to go,
a million miles to go...

With you, with you with you,
with you with you (I'll go anywhere)...

A million miles to go...
With you, with you with you,
with you with you (I'll go anywhere)...
A million miles to go...

The world never looked so bright,
you and I could touch every corner of the sky...

Another day, another road...
I hope theres a million more miles to go,

I hope theres a million more miles to go,
I hope theres a million more miles to go,
A million miles to go...
