Its been over since she went away,
But nothing really matters anyway,
If tomorrow's another day,
Tomorrow's another day,
Words are spinning out in retrograde,
Trying to cover up the mess I made,
But tomorrow's another day,
Tomorrow's another day,
Immersed at the top of the world,
Is her majesty,
Vanity,
Can it be?
Have we all been fated to pretend?
'Cause now I'm feeling like myself again,
And tomorrow's another day,
Tomorrow's another day,
Alone at the top of the world,
Is all we're meant to be,
Fantasy?
Shimmering
Girl, I never meant to cause you pain,
I'm so sorry for the things I say,
Is tomorrow another day?
Is tomorrow another day?
Yeah, tomorrow's another day,
Tomorrow's another day.
