If I should choose to live in my cocoon
Wrap myself in me and cry myself to sleep
If I should choose to protect my tender
Heart build a shell from you
Steal myself from you

Chorus

If I decided I can't do it anymore try to
Be so hard I'm trying to be so fucking
Hard if I should choose to keep lying to Myself pretend my mind is telling truths
Well I've got my own so who are you
I know I know

Chorus:

If I should choose to fall apart
Don't you think you should let me
If I should choose to die alone
You should forgive and forget me
I know
