When love was fresh like a web we'd mesh
Nothing felt better than your flesh against my flesh
One fatal slip one rip a tear
Touch me now and every single hair on my body stands on end
So don't touch me anymore
'Cause it feels like spiders
Like spiders all over me
Like spiders
Like spiders all over me
In the darkest corners of my mind they creep
Underneath my pillow at night when I sleep
Those hands I once longed to feel

I wanna squash them under my heel
So don't touch me anymore
'Cause it feels like spiders
Like spiders all over me
Like spiders
Like spiders all over me
I never thought it would end this way
I nver thought I'd see the day
I never thought I'd hear myself say
So don't touch me anymore
'Cause it feels like spiders
Like spiders all over me
Like spiders
Like spiders all over me
