I mean yeah but, it's like I'm at a point right now where it's like... what can I really do, yah know? Where do I go from here?

What do you tell me all the time? If they give you an inch... Make a mile.

VERSE 1

Riding through it all
With a picture of an angel
Flash
Cause we need a light
Crash
If you need to
Dash
Out in the night
There will never be another
Life for you ever baby use it right
I am
Calm in the form of a man that's I
Never will they view a man afraid to try
Chance always imma choose
From my heart of hearts
And that is why
I will never lose
What is a regret
Walls get burned
And the pictures ruined
When the looks are gone?
How will they remember you?
You?
Reach out and touch what's real
I don't wanna text you or call
I'm afraid I forgot how to feel
I don't know what's real at all
Going back to the roots
Going back to my heart
Going back to the feeling that I had when we first met
Does anybody tell the truth at all
Use me like I used you and leave me alone
Love

What is that?
Lust is every where
Why is it bad
Trippin on my thoughts
I don't wanna be alone
All of it looks so glamorous
Why wont they show me the truth?
Going back to the roots
Going back to my heart
Going back to the feeling that I had when I first saw you

VERSE 2

I was bearin my palms and I got em dirty to
I was sharin my soul and you can see it coming though
I was diving on the floor for promises to hold true
As frosty and cold as it gets I will never throw ice at you
Lack of faith had me down I was dizzy
But I'm just too strong not to go and get busy
Next fall this will all
Just be bars in this song
Cause this boys so gone with the wind
I'm in the zone
Alone
Whered you go?
Riding this wind like a champ man I'm never tired
Givin out this music for the not afraid to tryers
Rise every time you give us hell man we give it back
ON yeah we keep on movin ON
I am calm I am cool I am ready
(Set, go )
I will make up all this ground come next round
You will see it
Yeah I'm down
But I'll beat em all the odds man I mean it
I am calm I am cool I am ready
Ready
Ready man
I am always that
And they always want to trap the man
They wanna back me to a cliff to say grab my hand
So that's the plan now
Nah that aint goin down
I swear it on my mother
On brittany on amy on chris on jos on kells
That it aint over now
Ridin through it all
With a picture of an angel
Flash
Cause we need a light

Crash
If you need to
Dash
Out in the night
There will never be another
Life for you ever baby use it right
Holding up a candle
Hoping that I make through the night
