(Verse 1)

Did some body turn these lights off?
I haven't seen in the sun in three days
And I'm quite lost
I'm feelin like the girl who always says please write me a love song
Never gets a love song made made with Any type of love
You never really get one when you ask for an angel
You can't force love
You'll get angry
Forcing a lane drift is dangerous
And the love shack is nothing like the bank is When you put it in aint no gurantee that it'll be there when you go to take it out
When your loving somebody you get faced with
The fact there desires might change yes
But that doesn't mean we stop loving and working

(Hook)

And she keeps on saying
If only we can ride into past then we can change
All of the mistakes
And I'm sorry but you know that's not the way
That life works
And this is the situation that we gotta deal with
Even if it might hurt
This is way
That life tests us
Stripped us away of any rewind button
Gottaa lotta love left in your heart
Baby give it away
I can see it all the passion in you
Don't let em strip it away
I'm fightin till the bigger picture come and lift me away

(Verse 2)

You only got couples moves to make in front of you
They aint gon make themselves
You gotta take them sails you gotta catch that wind
I'll do the same my self I wont run wichu

But I'll work wichu and have fun with you
Were about to make this stand
Till they gotta punt the ball back
Make this stand
We got heart we got grit
We gotta take these hands
And build a plan from the ground up
You can come rate our efforts
Give us 5 stars
Or your lieing cause my breathe is running short
But I still wont quit
Cause I still see the tears in her eyes when I close mine
I don't want to feel it again
And I don't want to see us at the bottom again
I'm doing more than just plotting to win
Imma smile while I take a couple hits
But we gon get it right

(Hook)

And she keeps on saying
If only we can ride into past then we can change
All of the mistakes
And I'm sorry but you know that's not the way
That life works
And this is the situation that we gotta deal with
Even if it might hurt
