I had a girlfriend, who was very good to me
She brought me presents everyday
Thought I was happy but, then you came along
And showed me just how wrong I could be

CHORUS:

Ha ha, hey hey, yeah yeah, oh no
What's that now say no prayers
My soul can not be repaired
Can't control this love overload

I knew a girl who was irresistible
There wasn't a guy who didn't want the thrill
To touch, to feel Her warm enticing body
But her heart was set on large sums of money

CHORUS:

Ha ha, hey hey, yeah yeah, oh no
What's that now say no prayers
My soul can not be repaired
Can't control this love overload

Bridge/Solo

Knock knock, whose there, I can hear someone out there
What you want, now is it me? Are you gonna enlighten me
My body heat is rising, cause I cannot control your hypnotizing

CHORUS:

Ha ha, hey hey, yeah yeah, oh no
What's that now say no prayers
My soul can not be repaired
Can't control this love overload
