Always follow your dreams
Your hopes and your inspirations
Never let anyone change your fantasy
Time is reality and days go by so fast

CHORUS:

What do we have if we don't have hope and
We don't have dreams
A heart that is empty
A soul with a void
A life with no purpose
No meaning left for Freud
Time is reality and days go by so fast

M-8:

Time is more than the hands of the clock
Reality is living outside the box

Why do we do the things we do
Why do we believe others,
Who say what we can not do
We have to follow our hearts to reach our destination
Because it is love alone that can conquer,
And heal to every nation

Always follow your dreams
Your hopes and your inspirations
Never let anyone change your fantasy
Time is reality and days go by so fast

Listen to your heart,
It will lead to your right destiny
People may say you're not being real
What's the matter with you, what's the deal

Time is more than the hands of the clock
Reality is living outside the box

SOLO

Time is reality and days go by so fast
