So many emotions, deep inside of me
I feel angry, sad and incomplete
Sometimes I feel so out of place
Feel my grip slipping as I'm falling from grace

Why do I feel so alone
Cause no one understands
That I need to be at home

CHORUS:

Follow me, follow me
Let me hand everything to you
Follow me, follow me
It's what I'm supposed to do
Follow me, follow me
Blame everything on me
Follow me, follow me
Indebted to you is what I'm supposed to be

I live my life doing nothing for me
Just being everything for everybody
They can't begin to know what's really inside
Cause after they get what they want
No one cares and no one tries

Why do I feel so alone
Cause no one understands
That I need to be at home
