(Verse 1)

Pain

Unload it

I'll show that it wont set me back

I'll show them

I'll earn it

Over night is over rated

Say it and own it

Lack of courage is the only

Regret that packs a potent

Punch it leaves you broken

And even though I'm slippin

In this rain I'm still goin

I am standing here wide open

Floating

Hoping

Tatooing roses on our scarred emotions

See my eyes see I'm focused

You just wanna make some feelings fast

And I just wanna make the feeling last

I don't puff puff pass all the pain away

I don't wanna take a pill

I don't want it to be easy

I just want it to be real

This is for the hoppers the dreamers and the boxed ins

This is for the lion like couragous golden hearted flock

This is for the lost kids

This is for the person with the door slammed shut

But refused to let it stop them

This is for the lovers

We'd have nothing here without them

(Hook)

You are the reason that I try so hard

Baby you are the reason that I look past my self

You are the place that I find all this strength

Your eyes are like fire to me

Baby you are the reason that I try so hard

Baby you are the reason that I look past my self

You are the place that I find all this strength

Your eyes are like fire to me

(Verse 2)

I know you got a lot of work minus lookin out for me
See you runnin out of fuel and you burned it out for me
You earned all the words in the song when you churned out of me
Any thoughts that I had of giving up hope
Made a soldier outa me
So I hold you in my heart cause your bold and you showed me how to lead
All the courage that you had for me never gave a second thought at all
When they asked me how I learned how to fly I tell em it was your fault
I don't wanna take the credit I don't want an ounce at all
Way to many people in my life never let me fall
If you wanna find a home gotta learn to let em in,
Gotta learn to trust the team if you wanna move forward
Life gave you what it gave you it aint giving new cards
Deal with it or get eaten by some shark jaws Cryin puts a sharp pause on the progress that you coulda had March on (Yeah)

(Hook)

You are the reason that I try so hard
Baby you are the reason that I look past my self
You are the place that I find all this strength
Your eyes are like fire to me

Baby you are the reason that I try so hard
Baby you are the reason that I look past my self
You are the place that I find all this strength
Your eyes are like fire to me

You are the reason that I try so hard
Baby you are the reason that I look past my self
You are the place that I find all this strength
Your eyes are like fire to me

Baby you are the reason that I try so hard
Baby you are the reason that I look past my self
You are the place that I find all this strength
Your eyes are like fire to me
