I see from look in your eyes, there's Something I could never deny
For the first the first
After all this time
I found true love

I have never been so happy in my life
Till you finally showed me for the first time
I know this time I found true love

CHROUS

And I believe from the moment we met
Your love is truly as good as it is
That, once I let you go
I'll never be happy again

And I believe for the very first time
Your love is truly
Meant to be mine
And my heart knows once I let you go
I'll never be happy again

You gave me the reason to live, now
All I ever want is to give you all of me
Cause I believe you gave me true love

REPEAT CHORUS
