The atom germ wars gone precipitate genetic mutation social degeneration creatures born of malignant science the children of technology plutonium anthropology who will cleanse the mess left by the past who will expurgate the scared cytoplasm to rid the earth of abomination I proclaim my nomination as the thermonuclear warrior Strands of malformed DNA strangulate our future chromosomal executioners
Chorus
I seek the dying, sick and deformed all who would taint the species stabbing and choking and burning and drowning exterminate subhuman feces to every problem an answer must lie to this I have a solution
Crush kill destroy
I will smash any resistance
crush kill destroy
the reason for my divine existence You may ask what's right have I to take human life this way well I'm in control I make the rules and I don't need your o.k. genocide is my way of life it's a fact I will not hide the millions I've killed to sterilize euthanasia's not homicide
Crush kill destroy
I will not tolerate imperfection
crush kill destroy
I will impede the spread of infection
I was born my own master Chorus
