Ive got a great idea
And wouldn't you like to know
You probably can't bear it
So I guess I'll have to share it
I thought of it a moment ago

It starts with your hand in mine
And next comes a little stroll
You probably wont buy it
But Im trying to keep it quiet
So please don't tell a soul

Cause if you do
The world and you
Will think Im crazy and give me medicine
They'll drag me away
And as I go you'll hear me say
I could have been a decent match for edison

Ideas are few and far between
And good ideas are rarer still
So listen and be wise
Just forget the other guys
Cause my ideas no good for three
My idea is you and me
