Iâ€™ll write a song, as they expose her naked spine,
Its only me your enemy.
And when itâ€™s done, mother holds the smoke deep in her lungs.
Its only me your enemy.
Child cover your eyes, Whilst they destroy your fathers
heart,
Its only me your enemy.
Is it still alive, lets take the foetus and tear it apart.
Its only me your enemy.

Iâ€™d like to breathe Id like to see,
Capture your fleshy seventeen.
Its only me your enemy, Its only me your enemy.

Her trails of heart, spin around in colour to fill the dark,
when the music starts, to her sweet screams he picks
apart.

Iâ€™d like to breathe Id like to see,
Capture your fleshy seventeen.
Its only me your enemy, Its only me your enemy.
