I just can't take this any more
I've lost the only girl that I adore
Sometimes we all have to pretend
Feels like this pain will never end

Everybody knows what I've been through
And everybody knows my name
Everybody knows what I've been through
But nobody feels my pain

What can I do just to prove my love to you
I'm not sure how, but I know this is true

Stab me in the back, it don't mean jack!
Everything she says makes me feel like trash!
Wont even bother giving me a chance!
I wrote this song just to make you dance!

What can I do just to prove my love to you
I'm not sure how, but I know this is true

I wrote this song for who I wont say!
I wrote this song to be the one she'd hate!
I wrote this song with her in mind!
I wrote this song scream it one more time!
