Leaving this world never going back home
I don't need that girl, I'd rather be alone
No who am I kidding I'm nothing without her
Not sure what it is but there's something about her

Come sail the stars with me
Through the sky not through the sea
Come sail the stars with me
Take me hand and make believe
Come sail the stars with me
Through the sky not through the sea
Come sail the stars with me
Take me hand and make believe

Leaving this world never going back home
With her by my side I'll never be alone
When I'm with her and she's with me
I feel the love, I feel the trust, and I feel the peace
Leaving this world never going back home
With her by my side I'll never be alone
When I'm her you and she's with me
I feel the love, I feel the trust, and I feel the peace

Come sail the stars with me
Through the sky not through the sea
Come sail the stars with me
Take me hand and make believe
Come sail the stars with me
Through the sky not through the sea
Come sail the stars with me
Take me hand and make believe

They can't take the sky away from me
To find the truth look past what you can see

Come sail the stars with me
Through the sky not through the sea
Come sail the stars with me
Take me hand and make believe
Come sail the stars with me
Through the sky not through the sea
Come sail the stars with me

Take me hand and make believe
