"Nature of the beast"

Like a razor
I've been livin' on the edge
Am I losing control
I've been pushed above
The point of no return
Under pressure I fall

My will is bending, like steel
This talk of danger, is real

(It's not my nature)
To be sweet anymore
(It's just the nature)
Of the beast at your door
(It's human nature)
In the animal world
(It's in the nature)

I am not responsible
For things I can't explain
You know the night is like a zoo
In the jungle
With your back against the wall
Your love is precious to you

The fever burning, through me
You free the spirit in me

It's not my nature...

Look out

It's not my nature...
