"One by one"

I've been chasing for my daddy's autograph
You've been haunting my place for the laugh
We gotta solve them all
One by one

We gotta solve them all the problems - one by one
One by one

You really hated me, hit me like a drum
I was dum enough to let you fulfill your crime
Can you solve them all
One by one

Better solve them all
The problems
One by one
One by one
One by one

One by one, we ought to deal with them
What is on stake
We ought to deal with them
One by one

Someone's calling me on the phone
You are someone you can't leave me alone
I think we have solved them all
One by one

I think we have solved them all
The problems
One by one
One by one
