What will I do
When my heart starts to fear
So save

I'm down on my knees
Reaching out to you
Before my world falls apart
I'm begging you please
Give my feet new ground
And give my heart a new start
I am over the edge
One to many times
Cought at the end of a rope
Love left me for days
Who are you to come
And make me think there is hope

Save me from falling
What will I do when my heart starts to reel
Save me, save me, save me from falling
What will i do when my heart starts to fear

I had so many plans
To get step by step, one day at a time
Now it's out of my hands
And I'm sliding down
The mountain that I gotta climb
Always wanted to fly
I spent my life
Searching for the sky of my dreams
Got a store in my eye
But I need a love
That will give my heart new wings

What will I do when my heart starts to reel
Save me, save me, save me from falling
What will I do when my heart starts to fear
Save me, save me from falling
What will I do when my heart starts to reel
Save me, save me, save me from falling
What will I do when my heart starts to fear

So what will I do
So won't you save me, save me from falling, so save

What will I do
Save me from falling
What will I do when my heart starts to fear
Save me from falling
What will I do when my heart starts to reel
Save me, save me, save me from falling
What will I do when my heart starts to fear

So won't you, so won't you, so won't you save me
So won't you, so won't you, so won't you save me, so save
