With these words we speak of love
It's hard for us to end
It's all a fallacy
That people do pretend

The changes that I see
I tremble and I shake
We're down in history
For only one mistake

So far so good
So far so good
Twentieth century
Sole survival
So far so good
No neighbourhood
I can't escape your fire

I won't be far away
Don't worry about the night
And I will take away
The trouble in your life

When danger follows
It will take you by surprise
No desert island
You can run to when you hide

So far so good...

It's such a tragedy
To fight for what we cannot win
And all our golden days
Are gone forever

So far so good...
