Oh, you think that you rule the world
By throwing some bombs
You think that you reach a position
By pushing a button
(People die)
People die but they can't tell us why
(Children cry)
Children cry, yes and goodbye

Will rule the world, yeah you will rule the world
You will rule the world
And tomorrow you better run for your life
Will rule the world, yeah you will rule the world
You will rule the world
And tomorrow you won't get what you have today

There was a frightening sound
From the loudspeakers
All the people that not roared
??? all over the sky
(You're wounded)
You're wounded ??? way
(You're wounded)
You're wounded who's gonna pay

Will rule the world...

Would you join the war
Would you join the misery
When we lie on the floor
All we can say
It's always: you're sorry
(people die)
People die but they can't tell us why
(Children cry)
Children cry, yes and goodbye

Will rule the world... (repeat)
