Read my letter
And I pray you understand
Just you let her
Don't you ever force my hand

Be your judge and your jury
Are we guilty of lies
When two worlds collide

No, one lover can last forever
So don't you sever the lifeline
Just two people who do whatever, it takes
Don't sever the lifeline

Your two faces
Which one do I know the best
There's no story
You can hide that stands the test

Through the flame and the fury
Will tomorrow survive
When two worlds collide

No, one lover can last forever...
