"Goldfish"

I belong to a world to a race
I practice unconscious cannibalism and the punishment
as well
As a human I thirst all the wealth,
all the gold, all the toys, all the joys
I try to be a hippie but no matter how I try is not for me.

But nothing is changing
Nobody is wondering why?
The goldfish is upside down.

I belong to a world to a race
I practice unconscious cannibalism and the punishment
as well
As a human I thirst all the wealth,
all the gold, all the toys, all the joys
I try to be a hippie but no matter how I try is not for me.

But nothing is changing
And nobody is wondering why?
The goldfish is upside down.

We smash this earth is time to leave for good
The rich people will be the first of all
Minorities will have to take next ship
In tiny planets we can buy and sale
I wished I can have what I don't have.

He comes to fear for she's don't have
To drink the peace for several years
Looking for something else to be consumed.
