Call for the priest, I'm dying...

Well, the pressure's too much, you know I peaked last night

I gotta get some a quick release
City is standing on my shoulders
My body's going piece by piece
Ooh...!

Yes I know what I want and I know where to get it
And I'm going there right away
This is one priest that I don't have to fall on Down to my knees and pray
Ooh...!

When your back's to the wall come along one and all
We shall fight all the slander that's penned

It's us we shall choose let the bigoted lose
For our triumph's the means to their end

With you by my side I shall ride every storm

Let the cynics drop dead in their critical head
They're wrist merchants as we all can see
Bunch of deaf ears with their columnized fears
What a shame, what a shame, oh dear me!
Ooh...!
