They say there's a state of heaven
Somewhere way beyond the clouds
I know there's a piece of Heaven
In every little thing that you do
Cause every time you walk in the room
My angel is here
I'm so protected and heaven's so near
When I am under your wing
My wounds are healed and my spirit is clear
Come on angel make my heart sing
So when I'm lost and alone who will find me
Who's there whenever I call

Show me the strength that's inside me
Pick me up whenever I fall
You say love is no conditions
Each soul is free to come and go
Stay strong I don't need permission
Cause paradise is waiting for me
Every time I hear my heart speak
My angel is here
