(Brendan Croker)

I wanna walk to no particular destination
I wanna talk without when I got the inclination
I wanna move when I've got the locomotion
I'm gonna do just what it takes
To keep this smile on my face

I want to drive my car
Wherever they drive 'em faster
I wanna sail the ship
As long as I can be the master
I wanna ride the rails
On my own roller coaster
I'm gonna do just what it takes
To keep this smile on my face

I was born to be this way
Never save it for a rainy day
I just like to make it my own way
And I wanna be the first to say

Don't wanna work real hard
If it means that I ain't living
Don't wanna go through life
If there's no room for giving
Don't wanna stand here long
If it just means I'm waiting

I'm gonna do just what it takes
To keep this smile on my face

I was born to be this way
Never save it for a rainy day
I just like to make it my own way
And I wanna be the first to say

Don't wanna change my ways
If there ain't no good reason
Don't wanna change my mind
Without any rhyme or reason
Don't wanna be one way

I've got to change like the season
I'm gonna do just what it takes
To keep this smile on my face
I'm gonna do just what it takes
To keep this smile on my face
