Did you say you learned a lot?
Guess you learned what I forgot
Well I've always been a little slow
Won't you run it by me one more time?
Its just that, I thought we were doing fine

I wont break so you don't have to worry
'Cause I know what I can take
Too much has been taken, and I wont break
So you can come and go, because its only my mistake
And one that I wont make again

Turn the radio up loud
Make it seem like there's a crowd
Wonder how it is I didnt know?
Well I guess its true that love is blind
Its just that I thought we were doing fine
Baby did I hear you say you want to go?

Wont you run it by me one more time
Its just that I thought we were doing fine
I wont break so you dont have to worry
Cause I know what I can take
Too much has been taken
And I wont break
So you can come and go
Because its all my mistake
And one that I wont make again

Turn the radio up loud
Make it seem like there's a crowd
Wonder how it is I didn't know..
Well I guess its true that love is blind
I thought were doing fine
