"Wild Again"

Have you heard
Someone that I used to love's come back to town
He's walking on familiar ground
He know's his way around
Hey now
Did ya know
I was not expecting that he'd say hello
It seems so very long ago
So much he didn't know

And as for me
I don't be that wild again
I don't wanna be that
Helpless child who believes what you say
Then watches you walk away

Did ya know
Are you sure
If I held you again

You knew your way around
As for me I don't wanna be that wild again

I don't wanna be that Helpless child who believes you today tomorrow you'll walk away

Did ya know
Are you sure
If I held you again

Did ya know
Are you sure
If I held you
