It's time to greet the world
(Time to greet the world)
Life size, open your eyes
You've picked apart every word she ever spoke (Ah, she ever spoke)
Your life's a joke, get out of bed
'Cause you're not dead
In fact you're all you've got
So move if you're goin'
Better run if you can
Better move if you're goin'
Get your head out of the sand
You gotta run with the moment
While the moment is at hand
You better move if you're goin'
Better run with your right foot forward, man
Yeah
Winds moan, clouds roar
Shut the blinds, chain the door
Fight the ghost in your head, play dead
What's happened to you, wonderful you
You better move if you're goin'
Run if you can
Just move if you're goin'
And get your head out of the sand
You gotta run with emotion
Like an emotional man
Better move if you're goin'
Better run with your right foot forward, man
Yeah
Soldier of misfortune
You're ready to break down
So ready to break down, break down
[Solo]
Just move if you're goin'
Run if you can
Just move if you're goin'
Get your head out of the sand
You gotta run with the moment
While the moment is at hand
Better move if you're goin'
You better run like, run like Superman

Yeah, mm-hmm
You better run like, run like Superman
You better run like, run like Superman
