Have you heard the news?

It's raining on the moon

The man in the tv said

It's raining on the moon

Even the scientists

Can't believe it's true

They're showing diagrams

And little moon cartoons

Where we are is everything we know

All we've got is the love that we show

There was a man who knew

That none of this was true

He swore by GOD above

The end was coming soon

Now there's a rocket bus

Leaves every afternoon

And funny little cars

Racing on the dunes

Where we are is everything we know

All we've got is the love that we show

Everyone aboard

It's raining on the moon

What would you stay here for?

It's raining on the moon!

Everyone aboard

It's raining on the moon

No worries anymore

It's raining on the moon!
