Sunset on the river
Down in old Watertown
Hear the train whistle blowin'
As the leaves kiss the ground

I'm right there now

I was just a young boy
Going nowhere soon
With a dream and a beat-up six-string
You're just howling at the moon

I'm right there now

Rise over the darkness
Sail above the clouds
Faith keep me from falling
And I swear I won't look down

I'm right there now

At seventeen the town was changing
Factories were shutting down
We were rock and roll stars
To all the watered-down bars
And teenage brides in wedding gowns

I'm right there now

Rise over the darkness
Sail above the clouds
Faith keep me from falling
And I swear I won't look down

I'm right there now

And way down the wind
As I walk the road again
Only time is lost

I can still remember
Driving home in the driving rain

Past highway signs and Rock Island lines
California dreamin'

I'm right there now

Rise over the darkness
Sail above the clouds
(Gotta feel it now)
Faith keep me from falling
And I swear I won't look down

I'm right there now
Right there now

There now
Right there now
There now
Right there now
