Wake up my love (wake up)
She sleeps so peacefully... undisturbed
I still stutter and fumble forward

Doing everything I can to leave you be Tripping over words,
And falling head over heels,
What saves us to dream a little longer (dreamin)
Wake up my love
No you better stay asleep

I just don't know what to do any more,
Falling (falling) forward
I want pupils to dilate from rays of sun divided

Momentarily by what saves us to dream a little bit longer

Turn to peace and let this brightness illuminate such limbs that fragrant and aura like no other
It saves us all to dream a little bit longer

Please don't ever stumble (wake up my love)
Please don't ever break for me (me)
I want pupils to dilate (wake)
Save us all to dream a little longer
