MY MY SHE CRIES

By Carole King & Toni Stern

My my she cries, everyone dies
She waits, but can't get an answer
And all he wants to do is dance, dance, dance, dance
All he wants to do is dance.

My my he lies, look at those eyes
While moving in a little closer Moving in on the girl he hardly knows oh, oh, oh

See how she flies, under the skies
He waits, but she no longer hears him
She's gone,, gone, she's gone
she's flown away

See how she flies, breaking all ties
Did anybody really knows her?
Oh, did anybody really know?
