Those times when all the clouds were grey you looked at me that way and somehow the sun appeared don't try to tell me I was wrong I know I am not that strong but I can see through the tears

There is no need to be afraid we can be sure the dreams won't fade don't even try to understand just close your eyes and take my hand and you and I will fly
to our castle in the sky

Don't let those demons get you down I know you wear that frown But peace isn't far away from you there's so much for us to say but if words get in our way our silence will speak a thousand words

hmmmmm, yeah, yeah, ohhhh, yeah, yeah

then you and I will fly
you and I will fly
to our castle in the sky
