Uhhh yeah

There is so much that I wanna say
There is so much that I wanna do
Well I don't know your face but I know
Somewhere out there you feeling it, too

And my mind caress you
And my dreams won't leave you alone
Your're my private emotion
If only I could let you know

I will be there when you call
I will catch you when you fall
There's so much I would do
If I could find someone like you
Someone like you

I will find you wherever you are
I will take you under my wings
In my pictures we reach for the stars
And some day in real life we will

Cause my mind caress you
And my dreams won't leave you alone
Your're my private emotion
If only I could let you know

I will be there when you call
I will catch you when you fall
There's so much I would do
If I could find someone

I will be there when you call
I will catch you when you fall
There's so much I would do
If I could find someone like you

I could find someone like you

Uhhh Yeah Yeah

Find someone like you

I will be there when you call
I will catch you when you fall
There's so much I would do
If I could find someone like you

I will be there when you call
I will catch you when you fall
There's so much I would do
If I could find someone like you

Uhhh Yeah

Find someone like you
