I traced the words
I felt my fingers fall for it
Outlined the curves
Dotted the i's and stared at my feet

I won't leave, I won't leave without you
I'm just a shadow on the wall
I hate to fall in love alone.

Eleventh floor
I fell the elevation rise
Hope I'm in time
Be there before midnight
I've got a lot, I've got a lot to tell you.
I'll be a shadow on the wall
I hate to fall in love alone.

So come on baby
It's gonna be alright
Even though, this time
we've hit bottom.
I'll cover you in roses
You won't even notice
All the scars I'll leave behind

I beat you home
Settled it nice and quiet
I lit a fire
It gets so cold some nights
I can't wait, I can't wait to see you.
I'll be a shadow on the wall
I hate to fall in love alone.

So come on baby
It's gonna be alright
Even though, this time
we've hit bottom.
I'll cover you in roses

You won't even notice
All the scars I'll leave behind

Well we both had
Maybe just a little too much
I thought you'd like
For me to get a little rough I'm not the one, I'm not the one sent to save you
I'm just a shadow on the wall
I hate to fall in love alone

So come on baby
It's gonna be alright
Even though, this time
we've hit bottom.
I'll cover you in roses
You won't even notice
All the scars I'll leave behind

(Come on baby)

(It'll be alright)

So come on baby (Come on baby)
It's gonna be alright
Even though (it'll be alright), this time
we've hit bottom.
I'll cover you in roses (cover you in roses)
You won't even notice
All the scars I'll leave behind
