Verse 1:

No, you want to think that it's okay
The air is thin you smoke anyway

It's just another day.

You've run in place until your legs they shake
They ache the pain don't change a thing

It's just another day.

Chorus:

Just breathe
You don't have to say a word

It's never worth a fight you're gonna lose your mind
You're dying Miss America

Verse 2:

Looking for some sense of shelter
You don't know what you're after no

Why don't you turn to stone?

Live so fast all for no-one
The dream won't last forgotten where you're from

So where'd it all go wrong?

Chorus:

Just breathe
You don't have to say a word

It's never worth a fight you're gonna lose your mind
You're dying Miss America

Just breathe
You don't have to save the world

It's never worth a fight you're gonna lose your mind
You're dying Miss America

Bridge:

Miss America!
Miss America!

There will be no setting sun tonight
We'll have to leave you home tonight

You don't have to say a word
It's never worth a fight

You're gonna lose your mind
You're dying Miss America

Chorus:

Just breathe
You don't have to say a word

It's never worth a fight
You're gonna lose your mind
You're dying Miss America

Did you believe
You were gonna fix it all?

You wanna be so strong
It'll always go so wrong
You're dying Miss America

No you want to think that it's o.k.
To think it's just another day

You're dying Miss America

No you want to think that it's o.k.
To think it's just another day

You're dying Miss America
