[News Reporters Speaking]

"Rapper Foxy Brown was arrested today in Raleigh, North Carolina on misdemeanor charges for an alleged altercation with a hotel employee.

She was arrested and released on a thousand dollar bond but if found guilty of the charge, she could face up to sixty days in prison."

"Gun fire erupted today outside a Greenwich Village radio station. The gunplay allegedly stems from an ongoing feud... both artists claim no involvement in the incident. No arrests have yet been made in connection with the shooting."

"In other news, rap artist Foxy Brown was hospitalized yesterday after an apparent overdose on a common prescription drug. While the overdose was allegedly an attempt at her own life, no one from the hospital nor Foxy's family were available for comment. Stay tuned for more news"

"Inga Marchand, also known as rapper Foxy Brown, was taken to a local hospital today, when the Range Rover she was driving spun out of control at a Brooklyn sidestreet. Although she was not seriously injured, Marchand was later arrested for driving with a suspended license. This is just another in a long list of offences that have plagued this Brooklyn rap star."

[Foxy Brown]

Yeah, you know its been a long time since y'all heard

my voice
Maybe what, 2, 3, years or somethin
Up and down been high and low
Even been at the point of no return, no hope
Just wanna let my fans know that I'm still here
Y'all holla back

The sound was broken, too many years being political Its kinda hard to do when everything your seeing is critical
Is all my fault what they said in the news
But its funny how the public seems to get it confused
They act like they aint got nothin better to do
All they want is a statement, the haddin is blatin
But we never paid attention to those who hate us
Til my face was on the cover of all the local papers
But still un-phased, I kept my cool
Plottin, carefully, every step I choose
And my, Cool-whit poin, and my write finery
Everybody wanna know my side of the story
Well here it is, the whole truth, plain and simple This'll finally explain all the pain I've been through
And in no way shape or form of my provoken violence
Please try to understand my "Broken Silence"
